Family Fun in South Dublin County

Doing, learning, watching or exploring — it's all about spending quality time together.

Whether you want to bring the family to Tallaght Stadium to watch Shamrock Rovers or let the kids loose in the playground at Corkagh Park to burn off their energy, South Dublin County has the solution for your family.

If it's about learning together, there's always something happening in our Cultural Quarter at the Civic Theatre, Rua Red or County Library.

Choose from activities like rock climbing in The Dublin Climbing Centre or any of the other indoor options for that rainy day solution.

Tallaght Stadium

The stadium is best known for being the home of Ireland's most successful football club, Shamrock Rovers. Located close to the foothills of the Dublin Mountains, Tallaght Stadium has also hosted other sports ranging from American football and rugby to archery. The venue is extremely accessible with both bus and Luas services less than a five-minute walk away.

National Basketball Arena

The arena at Tallaght, formerly known as the National Basketball Arena, has regularly transformed from a major sporting facility to an exam centre, a concert venue and a trade exhibition centre, to mention but a few. Apart from the main hall, the arena also has a large hospitality area and conference room, and all can be hired separately or together.

Rua Red

Rua Red provides the opportunity for people of all backgrounds and ages to enjoy and partake in theatre, dance, music, literature, film-making, e-learning, visual art and all that the arts have to offer. Rua Red's exciting and varied programme of arts events is predominantly centred around galleries — high quality exhibitions accompanied by gallery talks and tours. Gallery entrance is always free of charge for the public.

Dublin Climbing Centre

Rock climbing is a physically demanding sport which is usually associated with the outdoors, but the Dublin Climbing Centre recreates the outdoors — only indoors. Dublin Climbing Centre provides for the novice through to the experienced climber with lead climbing, bottom rope, bouldering, courses and introduction tasters for new climbers. The centre is fully accessible to wheelchair users.
